To benefit the Young Women's Breast Cancer Program

YOU can make a difference in the fight against breast cancer, as a sponsor of CELEBRATE TENNIS.

On Wednesday, October 30, 2019, CELEBRATE TENNIS will draw an enthusiastic and impassioned group of women to the Doubletree Hotel's Chesterfield Athletic Club for a fundraising round-robin tennis tourney, silent auction and luncheon. One-hundred percent of the net proceeds will benefit the Young Women's Breast Cancer Program at Siteman Cancer Center at Washington University School of Medicine and Barnes-Jewish Hospital.

In its previous nine years, CELEBRATE TENNIS has raised over $166,000 for the YWBCP. And over the last 17 years, 'Celebrate' events in St. Louis have raised over $1.4 million for Siteman Cancer Center programs, including the YWBCP and the Director's Discovery Fund, thanks to the generosity of sponsors such as you.

The YOUNG WOMEN'S BREAST CANCER PROGRAM provides vital support programs for women under age 44, while spreading awareness and conducting research focused on this segment of the population, where breast cancer is typically more aggressive AND more deadly. Our goal is to continue our support so that young women in St. Louis will have a program like the YWBCP to turn to when they need it most.

Sponsorship opportunities for CELEBRATE TENNIS are available at a variety of levels to fit a wide range of charitable budgets and interests. Whatever your level of participation, please know that your generosity will be making a very real and direct impact on hundreds of lives in the St. Louis area.
